

Hiawatha, KS

Warren "Keith" Widman, 85, Hiawatha, Kansas passed away Saturday, September 12, 2015 at his home.

He was born January 22, 1930 in Hiawatha, Kansas.

He married Dora Benson on December 30, 1950 and were married for 64 years. She survives of the home.

He retired from KU Printing Service at Lawrence, Kansas. Warren was a member of the Christian Center in Hiawatha, where he was an elder. He was also a member of the American Legion Homer White Post #66.

He enjoyed working with his hands and helping anyone in need. Warren loved Kansas Jayhawks basketball and the Kansas City Royals. He especially loved his family and never missed an event in which his great grandchildren participated.

Mr. Widman was preceded in death by his parents, Chris and Mabel (Miner) Widman; stepfather, Homer Cline; brothers, Stanley and Melvin Widman and Homer Jr., Dale and Lucian Cline.

Survivors include son, Bob Widman, Gardner, Kansas; daughter, Kathy Goehner (Todd), Atchison, Kansas; grandchildren, Ryan Jones (Bobbie), Rachel Gill (Brett), Kelsey Hayes (Robert), Emillee Chapman, and Amanda, Alexis and Austin Goehner; great-grandchildren, Kate, Maddie and Kyle Jones; Bailey, Drake and Connor Gill; Haiden Hayes and Willow Widman; brother, Larry Widman; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mr. Widman was a member of the Kansas Cremation Service. The family will gather with friends in a celebration of life 1:30 to 5:00 P.M., Wednesday, Fisher Center, 201 E. Iowa St, Hiawatha, Kansas. Memorial donations may be sent to NEK Mutli County Hospice. Online guestbook and obituary at www.kansascremation.com.