Henrietta M. Zabel was born May 14, 1914 in Atchison, the daughter of Frank R. and Marie (Rohleder) Zabel. Girle attended Trinity Lutheran Grade School; was a 1932 graduate of Atchison High School; and attended three semesters at Mt. St. Scholastica Business College. Girle was a stay-at-home mom and homemaker and she devoted her life to helping her husband and sons on the family farm. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church and WELCA group of the church, the Lancaster Sunshine Unit, and the Bunko Club. Girle enjoyed cooking, crocheting, knitting, needlepoint, tatting, quilting, and sewing.

Girle and Charles F. Stucker were united in marriage on September 15, 1940 in Kansas City, MO. Charles preceded Girle in death on November 26, 2000. She was also preceded in death by a brother, William Zabel.

Survivors include two sons, David Stucker, Lancaster and Don (Leila) Stucker, Lancaster; two grandchildren, Catherine (David) Crist, Lancaster and Jeffery Stucker, Lancaster; one brother, Fred Zabel, Atchison.
