

Atchison, KS

Charles O. Parrott, 88, Atchison, formerly of Rushville, MO, passed away Thursday, May 24, 2012 at the Atchison Senior Village.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM, Tuesday, May 29, 2012 at the Becker-Dyer-Stanton Funeral Home with Pastor Keith Hoover and Pastor Gary Patterson officiating. Burial will follow in the Armstrong Cemetery, Rushville, MO. The family will receive friends from 6:30-8:00 PM Monday at the funeral home. Memorials are suggested to the Sugar Creek Christian Church, Cummings Christian Church or N.E.K. Hospice and may be sent in care of the funeral home. Condolences to the family may be left online at www.beckerdyer.com.

Charlie was born August 15, 1923 in Albany, MO the son of Lee Otis and Amanda (Barton) Parrott. He attended school at St. Nick Grade School in Cummings, KS and was a lifelong farmer. Charlie enjoyed singing and dancing and had played his guitar and sang on the radio. He was a member of the Lions Club and also liked playing cards, fishing and farming.

Charlie married Eula Sparks on July 29, 1942 in Atchison, KS. She survives of the home in Atchison. Additional survivors include two sons, Kenneth (Mary) Parrott; Jim (Linda) Parrott, both of Rushville, MO; a daughter, Joyce Winders, Tracy, MO; sister, Edith Lewman, Cummings, KS; 5 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Morgan Parrott; sister, Hazel McKanna; 2 grandchildren and a great-grandson.