

Falls City, NE

Pamela Sikora, 66, of Falls City, NE passed away on February 12, 2017. She was born April 9, 1950 to Betty Jane (Lichty) Tubach and the late Alvin Tubach.

On April 3, 1969 she married Fred Sikora at Falls City.

Pam was raised at Falls City and graduated Falls City High School in 1968 then attended Peru State College. When the couple married they established their home in Lincoln and she transferred to University of Nebraska at Lincoln until 1972 when her husband joined the Navy and they traveled the world due to his service. Upon his discharge she attended UNL. They moved back to Falls City in 1976 and she was a homemaker and also was an insurance agent with her husband in the family insurance agency. She taught music at Sacred Heart High School and accompanied the plays and musicals there. She earned a teaching degree from Peru State College in 2004 and taught pre-kindergarten and kindergarten at St. Andrews Catholic School at Tecumseh, NE. Following the birth of twin grandsons, she retired and helped care for the twins. She was a member of Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Altar Society.

Pam is survived by her husband Fred Sikora of Falls City; children Doug Sikora and his wife Heather of Lincoln, NE; Jennifer Sikora of Lincoln; Nic Sikora and his wife Andrea of Falls City; mother, Betty Jane Tubach of Falls City; sister, Jane Flynn of Lincoln; five grandchildren: Atom, Alvin, Griffin, Franklin, and Rosalyn. She is preceded in death by her father.

A memorial mass will be held on Saturday, February 18, 2017 at 11:00 AM at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church with Father Thomas Dunavan as the presiding priest.

A parish rosary will be recited on Friday at 6:30 PM at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church.

Family will receive friends following the rosary.