Bill was born on November 17, 1946 in Kansas City, KS the son of John and Betty (Jones) Cameron. He graduated from Atchison County Community High School in 1964. Bill served four years in the U.S. Coast Guard serving in Corpus Christi, TX and in Connecticut. He worked for his parents in the Lancaster Grocery and Locker for a many years. Bill retired in December, 2016 following 23 years of maintenance work for Blair Milling, Atchison. He was a member of the Lancaster United Methodist Church, the Dairy Herd Improvement Association, where he did testing of milk. Bill was especially involved and proud of his children and grandchildren, attending as much of their activities and sporting events as possible. Bill loved horses and could do any and everything associated with horses. He also enjoyed bowling, watching television, playing slow pitch baseball, and was an avid Benedictine and University of Kansas sports fan. He didn't know a stranger, and could talk with anyone.

He was married to “Lin” Linda Pennington on February 8, 1971 in Miami, OK. She survives of the home. Additional survivors include three daughters, Lori Stafford, Atchison, KS, Daisha (Dean) Miller, Atchison, KS, and Donae (Mike) Pierce, Horton, KS, two sisters Bonnie Cameron and Mary Liggett, both of Atchison, KS, seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren. His parents, grandson Nicholas Miller, and granddaughter Elizabeth Scheid, preceded him in death.
