

Formerly of Falls City, NE

Ronald Douglas Cook passed away Monday, May 1, 2017 in Sioux Falls , S.D. He was born January 30, 1972 in Falls City.

He grew up in Falls City and attended school here through high school. Ronnie moved to Sioux Falls, South Dakota and has lived there several years. Ronnie loved music and played the guitar and drums having played in some bands while living in Falls City. He also loved fishing with his cousin.

Ronnie is survived by his sons, Derek and Collin Cook of Falls City; parents, Margie and Larry Cook, brother, Rob Cook; and sister, Jennifer Jamvold, all of Plattsmouth; a special cousin Gary Wenz; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews and a niece also survive him. Also many friends in Falls City and Sioux City.

Graveside Memorial Services will be held at 10:30 on Saturday, May 20, 2017, at the Zion United Church of Christ Cemetery, nine 3/4 miles northeast of Falls City, Nebraska with Pastor Fay Ann Blaylock officiating.

A register book will be available to sign Friday, May 19th from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. at the Hall Funeral Home in Falls City.

Online messages of condolence can be left at www.hallfuneral.net
Hall Funeral Home-2403 Harlan ST.- Falls City, Nebraska 68355 (402) 274-3131