Josh had a contagious smile that everyone loved; he could light up anyone's day with his wild and witty sense of humor. He enjoyed drawing, reading, music, and playing his guitar. His passion was skate boarding with family and friends. Josh dreamed of someday having a skateboard park where kids could go and hang out. Josh loved playing video games with his brother and other games with family and friends.

Josh is loved by many including his mother, Pamela Cline and Jeremy Watkins, his father, Dillon and Amber Kinsman, his siblings; Ashley, Kyle, Parker, Dawson, Bradley, Kairstin, Jayden, Justin, Lacy, Logan and Jami. His grandparents, Mike and Betty Cline, Paul and Linda Kinsman, and several aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends.
