

Atchison, KS

Ann M. Wilfong, 54, Atchison, Kansas, died Sunday, April 8, 2018, at her residence.

A memorial service will be Saturday, April 14, 2018, at 11:00 A.M. at Carol Baptist Church in Atchison, with Rev. Joseph Hansen officiating. Interment will be at a later date. Memorial Contributions are suggested to assist with funeral expenses and may be left in care of the Arensberg-Pruett Funeral Home. Online condolences may be left at www.arenbergpruett.com.

Ann was born May 1, 1963, in Manistee, Michigan, the daughter of Dale and Lucille (Kelley) Fargo. She attended elementary school and High School in Cadillac, Michigan.

She and Raymond E. Wilfong were united in marriage on September 28, 1984, in Atchison, Kansas.

Ann was employed with the Berger Company in Atchison, on the production line in the gluing and edging department.

She was a member of Carol Baptist Church. Ann enjoyed reading, crocheting, watching movies and spending time with her grandchildren.

Survivors include her husband Raymond, her father, Dale Fargo, Mexia, TX, two sons, Jayson (Holly) Fargo, Atchison, KS, Raymond E. (Stephanie) Wilfong, Jr., Atchison, KS, a daughter, Laura M. (Robert) Randall, Atchison, KS, two brothers, Jim Fargo, Cadillac, MI, Wells Fargo, Cadillac, MI, two sisters, Vickie MacCormick, Cadillac, MI, Sandra Seeley, Wayland, MI, and five grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her mother and a brother, Richard Fargo.