

Summerfield , KS

Flora Gene Cameron of Summerfield, KS, most recently residing at Good Samaritan Society in Beatrice, NE, died May 21, 2020. She was born July 1, 1934 on a farm near Liberty, NE to Joseph M. and Mae Pearl (Maine) Crosier. July 20, 1952 Gene was united in marriage with Harlan Cameron.

Gene was preceded in death by her parents, husband of 52 years, Harlan, son Kevin, brother LaVal Crosier, sisters Betty Morrison and Rita Peterson.

Survivors include daughters Colleen and husband Dwight Morehead of Burchard, Sherryl and husband Keith Burger of Summerfield. Believing they were all Grandma's favorite, the grandchildren are listed in chronological order so as not to reveal the true favorite: Kristopher Morehead and wife Janet of Nixa, MO; Tiara Harms and husband Colonel Brent Harms, currently of Montgomery, AL; Kerri Butler and husband Christopher of Randolph, KS; Patrick Morehead and wife Lindsey of Lincoln, NE; Travis Burger and wife Nichole of Manhattan, KS. Great-Grandchildren are Damian, Isabella, and Michael Butler; Pyper and Gaige Morehead; and Cameron Harms (the most recent favorite). Other survivors include sister LaVon Vaughn, sister-in-law Helen Mally, numerous nieces and nephews, and a lifetime of friends too numerous to even imagine.
