

Highland, KS

Beverly Elaine Sisk (Potter) was born on February 4th, 1938 to Samuel Irvin Potter and Opal Potter (Taylor) in the White Cloud, Kansas area. On October 16th, 2020, she went to be with her Lord and Savior. Her mother died of complications at birth and her father died in a hunting accident when she was an infant. Bev was raised by her grandparents, George and Ella Taylor on their farm.

On August 22nd, 1955, she married Franklin (Sonny) Wayne Sisk. They spent their entire married life in the Doniphan County area. Their final years together were spent in Iowa Point, until Frank passed away on January 15th, 2003.

Beverly enjoyed gardening, cooking, raising sheep, and spending time with her family and friends. She was a devout Christian and enjoyed her Church family also. She always spent time reading and studying the Bible, while sharing with others the Lord's word.

Beverly was truly a hard-working woman, amazing cook, and loved the outdoors and her grandchildren dearly. Cooking and cleaning were just a few of her specialties. She was always critiquing her dishes to ensure all was just right and couldn't get a house any cleaner. She loved spending outdoors walking, taking care of the farm, and mushroom hunting.

Her final thirteen years were spent residing with her youngest son Mike and his wife Tammie Sisk in Highland, Kansas.

Her survivors include son Curt (Jackie) Sisk, daughter Debra Sisk and companion Greg Stewart, and son Mike (Tammie) Sisk. She had eight grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren.
