Marvin attended Sumner Elementary in rural Atchison County and Atchison County Community High School in Effingham, Kansas and graduated from Atchison High School. He served in the United States Army from 1961 until his honorable discharge in 1965. After his military service, Marvin married Marjorie Williams of Newton, Kansas on August 21, 1965. Marvin worked at Atchison Casting as a welder while also being an avid farmer in Atchison.

Marvin loved people and had a heart for helping everyone in any way he could. He gave his time and hard work ethic willingly to his family, friends, and community. Everyone knew that if you needed anything you could call on Marvin and he'd be right there. He could win you over with his sense of humor and his wittiness.

Marvin had several hobbies, but one of his favorite past times was to play checkers and chess. He was a strategic critical thinker and problem solver; skills that he instilled in his children. Marvin loved chicken and dumplings, peach cobbler, lemon meringue pie, cold watermelon, butterfingers, and sprite. He enjoyed spending time with his family, his brothers and sister, going to family cousin dinners, having date nights at Sonic or Dairy Queen with his wife, and watching westerns. Oh, and he also enjoyed watching his favorite soaps: The Young and the Restless and The Bold and The Beautiful.

Left to cherish his memory are his loving and devoted wife Marjorie D. Boldridge of the home; one daughter, Karen Boldridge of Kansas City, MO; three sons Mark Boldridge of Atchison, Steven Boldridge (Jennifer) of Atchison, Brad Boldridge (Althera) of Blue Springs MO; and a special devoted son Chris Copeland of Council Bluffs, IA; a sister Peggy Roper and a brother Calvin Boldridge of Atchison; eight granddaughters, Bliss Boldridge, Alexandria Boldridge, Haven Boldridge, Jady Boldridge, Gabrielle Boldridge, Kerrington Boldridge, Raelyn Boldridge; a special granddaughter Lakyn Henning; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Marvin's huge smile and giant personality will be missed by everyone who knew him.
