

Beatrice, a native of Auburn , NE

John Leonard Juilfs, 62, of Beatrice, Nebraska was born in Auburn, Nebraska to Welton and Marlyse (Viox) Juilfs on April 9, 1958. He was the fourth of five children. John was raised in Talmage, Nebraska where he attended school and resided until 1979. At that time, he moved to Mosaic, formerly Martin Luther Home in Beatrice, Nebraska. John lived at Mosaic for 42 years. He was loved by both the staff and residents alike. Though his physical abilities were limited, it never stopped him from trying to do his best. He worked in the workshop and enjoyed many activities at Mosaic. John attended classes at Southeast Community College and was a regular at many eating establishments in both Beatrice and Lincoln. He will be greatly missed by his family at Mosaic.

John was a very important part of our family. He loved to talk about everything from sports, to current events, to the local news. John had an excellent memory and could tell you details of things that happened many years ago. He also loved Nebraska football. John attended many games over the years and could tell you the score of games played over 50 years ago. He also loved trains and even had his own train set that he enjoyed operating. Fly high JLJ!
