He graduated from Hiawatha High School in 2007, Highland Community College in 2009, and furthered his education at Washburn University in Topeka, KS and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Business in 2011. Bryce was the father of 4 children that he shared with his wife: Brody (8), Emersyn "Emmy" (6), Annistyn "Annie" (4), and Bennett (3). He was a dedicated and involved father who wanted to see his children grow and succeed. He could nearly always be found coaching one of his children's athletic teams or assisting in their numerous activities.

Apart from Bryce's involvement with his family, he found joy in hobbies including: golf, BBQ, watching KU basketball, and most recently, refining his palate with bourbon selections.
