

Clay Center, KS

James T. Cook, of Clay Center, formerly a native of Brown County, died Thursday, August 2nd, at the age of 97.

He was born May 22, 1915, in Robinson, Kansas.

Funeral services will be 10 AM Wednesday at the Clay Center United Methodist Church in Clay Center, Kansas.

Respect calls may be made anytime Tuesday at the Holmes-Pfeifley Funeral Home in Riley, Kansas, where the family will receive friends from 7 until 8:00 Tuesday evening.

Burial, with military honors, will be in the Horton Cemetery.

He is survived by one son, Tom Cook, of Clay Center; one daughter, Iva Hein, and husband Kenneth, of Durham, Kansas; one brother, Glenn Cook and wife Nila, of Horton, Kansas; 18 grandchildren; and numerous great and great-great-grandchildren.