

Formerly of Fairview, KS

Rosetta Louise (Eisenbise) Bartram, 90, of Berwick, Kansas died Saturday, August 25, 2012 at the Apostolic Christian Home in Sabetha. Rosetta, daughter of James & Verna (Rieger) Eisenbise was born July 7, 1922 in Fairview, Kansas. Rosetta graduated from high school in her hometown of Fairview. She was united in marriage to James E. Bartram of Berwick, Kansas on February 6, 1942. They moved to Berwick, where they raised their family and lived their entire life together. Shortly after marriage, Jim was drafted in the U.S. Army. Rosetta stayed at home in Kansas, while Jim was in Germany, and gave birth to their first child, Betty Anne.

James & Rosetta had celebrated 67 years of marriage before James passing on December 10, 2009. They owned & operated Bartram Truck Line for 50 years, retiring in 1988.

Rosetta was a homemaker, as well as, bookkeeper & truck driver for their family owned business. She is a long-time member of the Congregational Church (NorthRidge) of Sabetha where in earlier years she taught Sunday School classes. She loved spending time with family & friends and playing a variety of card games. Her hobbies included sewing, latchkey, word searches & walks around the town of Berwick. Rosetta has always been a very giving person, always doing for others before herself.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Edward Bartram; her parents, Verna and James Eisenbise; her granddaughter, Julie Niehues.

She is survived by her three daughters, Betty Anne Niehues and her husband, Lester of Sabetha, Connie Scarlett and her husband, Mark of Spokane, Washington, and Carmen Yost and her husband, Michael of Sabetha; one sister, Betty Hartter of Sabetha; one brother, Chuck Eisenbise of Kansas City and five grandchildren, Ty Scarlett, Taner Scarlett, Toak Scarlett, Jeff Niehues and Becky Richardson and 7 great grandchildren.
