

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=10342>

Mound City School Board Approves New Hires

The Mound City School Board last week approved the hiring of several new teachers for the 2012-13 school year. Superintendent Ken Eaton provided information on the new hires. (play audio :50 seconds)

The Board also accepted the resignation of Kindergarten teacher Allison Noble.

Eaton said because of the mild winter, school will be dismissing earlier than originally planned this spring. (play audio :15 seconds)

That eighth grade promotion had been scheduled for May 17th.

During the Superintendents report, Mr. Eaton updated the Board on transportation bids and the weight room project. (play audio :22 seconds)

Staff input during the meeting was provided by Kayla Schoonover and Jason Lenz. (play audio :44 seconds)

During the April 18th Mound City School Board meeting the board will reorganize for the next year. There will be no new board members elected this year.