Kansas SRS Head Names Regional Director

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) The head of the Kansas Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services has named a permanent director for the agency's Kansas City region.

SRS Secretary Phyllis Gilmore announced the appointment of Mike Myers on Monday. Myers has been the interim regional director since February.

The regional office covers Atchison, Douglas, Johnson, Leavenworth and Wyandotte counties. The region serves more than 97,000 clients.

Myers has more than 30 years of experience in management, human resources, budgets and business administration.
