

Nebraska City, Falls City top teams at Auburn Golf Invite

Nebraska City edged Falls City by one stroke to win the Auburn Invitational in Monday's high school golf.

The Pioneers finished with a team total of 361, while Falls City totaled 362. Auburn was third with a 382 total, and Lewiston totaled 389. Golfers from Pawnee City, HTRS, and Rock Port also competed in the tournament.

Lewiston's Trevor Jasa was the individual medallist with a 76. That was six strokes better than second place finisher, Wade Witt of Falls City, who shot an 82 for runner-up honors.

Nebraska City's Aaron Moyer was third with an 85 and three golfers – Calvin Bishop and Joe Nelson of Auburn and Seth Anderson of Nebraska City – shot a 90. Brody Weinman of Falls City placed 7th with a 91, Andrew Boyce of Nebraska City shot a 92, and Trey Blex of Auburn and Weston Witt of Falls City each finished with 93 to round out the top 10 individuals.
