

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=10820>

Corning Woman Faces Charges

A 29-year-old woman is facing legal troubles, following her arrest this week on financial-related charges.

Although specific details are sketchy, as the investigation is ongoing, the Nemaha County Sheriff's Department does confirm the apprehension of Crystal Sunderman, of Corning.

She was taken into custody on charges of theft, forgery, and criminal use of a financial card.

The Sheriff's Department says the case is ongoing.