Big 10 Mens Gymnastics Championships This Weekend

The No. 9 Nebraska men's gymnastics team will head east to Iowa City, Iowa this weekend to take part in the team's first-ever Big Ten Championships. The meet will take place over the course of two nights, with team competition tonight and the individual competition on Saturday night.

Both sessions are slated for a 7 p.m. start and will be broadcasted live on BTN and BTN2Go.com.

The Huskers remained at ninth nationally in the latest GymInfo Poll, released April 2. The Huskers hold a team four-score of average of 341.883, good for sixth among Big Ten teams. The Penn State Nittany Lions came in at first nationally (355.600), while Oklahoma came in at second (354.167) and Stanford held strong in third (352.650).
