

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=11040>

Hearing Continued For Fairview Woman in Attempted Murder Case

The preliminary hearing for a Fairview woman charged with attempted first-degree murder and aggravated endangerment of a child has been postponed.

The hearing for 36-year-old Tammy Thomas was continued today (Wednesday) in Brown County Court to May 30th at the request of her court-appointed attorney, William O'Keefe of Seneca.

Thomas was arrested last Friday following an investigation by the Brown County Sheriff's Department.

She is accused of placing gasoline on the bed of a child born in 2004 in an attempt to kill the child.

The child escaped unharmed and the gasoline wasn't ignited.

Thomas remains in the Brown County Jail on $750,000 bond.