Atchison Women Plead Guilty to Cocaine Possession

Two Atchison women entered guilty pleas to a charge of possession of cocaine from separate incidents Wednesday in Atchison County Court.

Jyme Beadles and Raechelle Jones were both arrested after separate traffic stops by Atchison Police on March 11th.

Upon a search of Beadles' vehicle, officers found a white rock-like substance determined by KBI labs to be cocaine.

Upon a search of Jones' vehicle, officers found a tube with residue determined by labs to be cocaine.

Both could face 10 to 42 months in prison and are subject to the Senate Bill 123 drug treatment program.

Sentencing for Jones is scheduled for June 11th and sentencing for Beadles is June 18th.

Both are free on 10 thousand dollars bond.
