

Lourdes Central wins own Track meet

Nebraska City Lourdes won both the girls' and boys' team titles at its own Orville Rettig Invitational track meet Friday.

The Lourdes Central boys won with 128 points. Pawnee City was second with 113 points, followed by Johnson-Brock, Omaha Christian, HTRS, and Bellevue Cornerstone Christian.

Johnson-Brock senior Kale Wolken won three events on the day – the 100-meter dash, 300-meter hurdles, and the long jump. Will Gittinger of Lourdes Central won both the shot put and discus. Pawnee City got a first place finish from Austin Smith in the high jump.

The Lourdes Central girls won the meet with 140 points. Johnson-Brock was second with 108, followed by Omaha Christian, Pawnee City, and HTRS.

Shawna Newman of Johnson-Brock won both the 1600 and 3200-meter runs; Ellen Wulf of Lourdes Central took first in both the 100-meter dash and 300-meter hurdles; Lauren Heng of Lourdes Central won both the 200-meter dash and the triple jump; and HTRS' Hannah Volker won both the shot put and discus.