

Alcohol A Factor in Wreck Injuring Three Teenagers

Three people were injured in an accident Thursday night in Nemaha County Nebraska, west of Johnson.

The Nemaha County Sheriff's Department report says Tyler Armknecht was eastbound on 731 road when he apparently lost control of the 1995 Geo Tracker he was driving. The vehicle went into the south ditch and rolled.

Armknecht and two female passengers were transported to the Nemaha County Hospital in Auburn by Johnson Rescue and Pro-Med. Armknecht and one of the females were then transported to Bryan / LGH West Hospital in Lincoln.

According to the report from the Sheriff's Office alcohol was a factor in the crash and seatbelts were not in use. The names of the three victims have not been released since they are minors. The fourth passenger a male, did not require medical attention and was cited for minor in possession of alcohol. Because the injured parties are minors, no reports on their condition can be released by the hospital. Johnson Fire and Rescue, Pro-Med, the Nemaha County Sheriff's Department and Nebraska State Patrol responded to the accident.
