Senator Fischer Finds Armed Service Committee Work Fascinating

(KLZA) U-S Senator Deb Fischer took the oath of office in January after Nebraska voters elected her last November in a tough race with former Senator Bob Kerrey.

Fischer has been appointed to serve on the Armed Services Committee and the Commerce Committee in her first term. She noted in a visit to Falls City Tuesday her fascination with the work done on the Armed Services Committee. (play audio :20 seconds)

Senator Fischer explained the work on the committee confirms what a dangerous world we live in today. (play audio 1:04)
