Royal Valley Searching for New Middle School Principal

( KNZA )--The Royal Valley School District is searching for a new middle school principal.

The USD 337 Board of Education recently accepted the resignation of Aaric Davis who had held the position since the fall of 2011.

Prior to that, Davis served as assistant principal for three years and a taught math at the high school for seven years.

The Holton Recorder reports Davis has been hired as the new pre-K through 12th grade principal for Southern Lyon County USD 252.
