Falls City School Board to Meet Monday

(KTNC) - The Falls City Board of Education will hold its regular July meeting at 7:00 p.m. Monday in the District's Central Office.

The meeting agenda includes the annual hearings for several board policies. Those include policies pertaining to student fees, nutrition and wellness, expenses and reimbursement, bullying, Internet access, and early separation, as well as several No Child Left Behind policies.

Board action includes approving the Student Handbooks and the School Calendar for the 2013-14 school year.

The board will get information on the process to fill a vacancy on the School Board.

The Superintendent's report includes preliminary budget information.

The board will also hear a report from Kent Stutheit on the Falls City High School Band Program.
