Auburn School Board Conducting Special Hearings Prior to Regular Board Meeting

(KLZA) The Auburn Board of Education will meet this afternoon. At 5:20 p-m the Board will conduct a special hearing to consider the student fee policy. That will be followed by a special hearing at 5:25 p-m to consider public input on parental involvement and participation policy.

The regular meeting of the Auburn Board of Education is scheduled to convene at 5:30 p-m at the Districts Central Office.

Agenda items include action on the 2013-14 student fee structure, bread and milk bids as well as carpet bids.

In other action the Auburn School Board will discuss elementary and secondary school handbooks and hear a number of reports from committees and Superintendent Kevin Reiman.
