

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=25984>

Gallery Talk at Falls City Library and Arts Center Friday Night

(KLZA) A solo art show featuring Nebraska cartoonist Paul Fell is currently hanging in the Stalder Gallery of the Falls City Library and Arts Center. A gallery talk and art opening featuring the artist will be held this Friday night at 7:00 p.m. at the gallery.

Fell will give a free workshop on cartooning Saturday morning at the library. There are still a few slots left for that workshop. If you're interested, contact Christina Wertenberger at (402) 245-6034.

The art opening and workshop are sponsored by the Richardson County Arts and Humanities Council, F & M Bank, Richardson County Bank, with support from the Nebraska Arts Council.

Many Signals Communications