

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=25988>

Air Show Set Saturday in Tarkio Missouri

(KLZA) The Wing Nuts Flying Circus Fly-In and Airshow will be held in Tarkio, Missouri on Saturday.

Events begin with a Fly-In breakfast at 6:30 a-m.

At 10 a-m Congressman Sam Graves, a family farmer from Tarkio and other Congressmen are hosting an aviation town hall meeting expected to attract more than 200 aviation community members.

The airshow begins at noon. Events will take place at the Gould Peterson Memorial Airport on State Highway O near Tarkio.

The Wing Nuts Flying Circus works to support military veterans and educate kids about aviation history and opportunities. Pilots from all over the Midwest are expected to be in attendance.

The public is invited to attend.

Many Signals Communications