Holt County Health Department Reaches Agreement with Fairfax Doctor (KTNC) - The Holt County Health Department will continue to provide basic health services to residents, after they were able to reestablish standing doctor's orders in the absence of a doctor at Northwest Health Services.

County Clerk Kathy Kunkel explains that means they will be able to continue providing services such as vaccinations to local residents. (play audio :52 "to our folks.")

Kunkel says Nelson was able to secure standing doctor's orders from Dr. Gillett at the Fairfax Hospital that will allow them to continue to provide those services locally.
