

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=27870>

Hiawatha Man Accused of Hamilton Co Sex Crime

(KNZA)--A Hiawatha man remains jailed in Hamilton County, Kansas, charged with electronic solicitation and indecent solicitation of a child.

According to a press release from the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department, Timothy Davidson was arrested in Hiawatha on August 27th, following the execution of a search warrant at a residence. Assisted by Hiawatha Police, Davidson was taken into custody in connection with an alleged sex crime that happened in Hamilton County.

His arrest followed a two month investigation.

Formal charges were filed in Hamilton County on August 29th, and Davidson remains held on $75,000 bond.

Many Signals Communications