

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=28377>

2013 Pink Ladies' Night

Ladies, please join Sigma Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi and Community Memorial Healthcare (CMH) for an event to celebrate Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Sigma Psi and CMH are sponsoring their 2nd Annual Pink Ladies' Night, on Friday, October 18, 2013 beginning at 6:30 PM at the Lee Dam Center for Fine Art, 201 South 9th Street, Marysville.

Enjoy entertainment, food, education, and fun. Guest speakers include: Lynn Marshall, Registered Nurse (RN) with the Tammy Walker Cancer Center in Salina, KS; Janet Kiser, a breast cancer survivor and American Cancer Society Reach to Recovery volunteer; and stand-up comedian Stephanie Hillier, Omaha, NE. Admission is free.

Pink Ladies' Night is made possible this year by generous donations from the R.L. & Elsa Helvering Estate Trust, Guise-Weber Foundation, Landoll Corporation, Lee Dam Center for Fine Art, Allie Belle Creations, American Cancer Society, Susan G. Komen Foundation, and two local fundraising events sponsored by Sigma Psi.

Proceeds from Pink Ladies' Night go towards cancer research in Kansas and Sigma Psi to help Marshall County families who are battling cancer. For more information, please call Ronda Sunnenberg at (785) 562-4465.