Everest Man Arrested, Faces Meth Charges
(KAIR)--An Everest man is in custody on drug charges.

According to Atchison police chief Mike Wilson, officers responded to a call shortly before midnight on August 28th regarding a suspicious male on the 1000 block of Ash. Upon investigation, officials discovered what appeared to be methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia in his possession. 32 year old Jonathan McClain was not arrested at that time.

However, a district court warrant was issued for McClain on September 14th and he was arrested Tuesday morning. He faces one charge each of possession of methamphetamine and possession of paraphernalia. No bond has been set at this time.
