

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=29428>

Hiawatha Halloween Gains National Recognition

(KNZA)--As Hiawatha prepares for Wednesday's 99th annual Halloween Frolic, while also planning for next year's 100th anniversary celebration, the Brown County community gains national recognition.

The Travel Channel has featured Hiawatha's longest running continuous celebration of the haunted holiday in a special feature.

To view the segment, go here.

Many Signals Communications