Update: Driver Killed in I-29 Crash Identified

(KAIR)-A single-vehicle accident on Interstate-29 south of St. Joseph Friday morning claimed the life of a Nebraska man.

According to the Missouri State Highway Patrol, 40-year-old Eric Gouin, of Norfolk, was traveling south when his semi truck left the roadway for unknown reason around 8:45 and struck a large tree head-on.

Gouin was pronounced dead at the scene.

The accident closed down the southbound lanes of I-29 near the Buchanan-Platte County line for more than 2 hours.
