

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=29982>

Amelia Earhart Bridge Puts On Quite A Show

(KAIR)--Atchison residents, and guests from across the region, were treated to a unique light show Wednesday evening. It was conducted through the use of the many colored light schemes that line the recently constructed Amelia Earhart Memorial Bridge. Officially turned on in July, Wednesday was used as an opportunity to highlight the many different colors available for use. The light show was overseen by lighting contractor Capital Electric.

Post by Kimberly Kaye Qualls.

Many Signals Communications