

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=31516>

No Injuries in Icy Morning Crashes

(KNZA)--There were no injuries despite reported rollover crashes on icy slick roads Friday morning.

While the northern area of the local region escaped a hard hit, motorists on the southern faced a slippery morning commute.

Roadways from Atchison County into Southern Brown County proved dangerous, with two rollover wrecks near Horton reported, but no one was hurt.

Many Signals Communications