Two Sentenced In Atchison Drug Case

(KAIR)--Two people arrested last September on charges following traffic stop in Atchison have been sentenced to prison.

According to Atchison County Attorney Jerry Kuckleman, 24-year-old Lancaster resident Jessica Mottin was sentenced Friday to 30 months in prison on several charges, including possession of methamphetamine, transporting an open container, driving while suspended, and obstructing the legal process.

34-year-old Atchison resident Abraham Green, who was a passenger in the vehicle, was also sentenced Friday to 34 months in prison on various drug charges--including possession of methamphetamine. He pled guilty to the charges January 17th.
