SE Neb. Man Thousands Richer

(KTNC) -- A southeast Nebraska man won a top prize on a Nebraska Lottery scratch ticket.

Lottery officials say Harold Anderson of Johnson won $10,000 playing the $2 scratch game, Holiday Gifts. He purchased the winning ticket at a convenience store in Nebraska City.

There are three $10,000 prizes available with the Holiday Gifts game and Anderson is the second person to claim one of the top prizes.

Anderson claimed his prize on January 24. He said he plans to use the winnings to buy a new car.
