Pottawatomie Co Motorcycle Crash Injures One

(KNZA)--A Fort Riley man suffers injuries in a Pottawatomie County motorcycle wreck.

32-year-old Rogger Webb was northbound on K-13 when he lost control of his motorcycle and struck a wooden post on the side of the roadway.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says it happened around 5:00 Friday evening, just north of Riverpond Road, located on the dam over Tuttle Creek.

Webb, who was wearing a helmet, was transported to Topeka's Stormont-Vail with disabling injuries.
