

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=37009>

Havensville Man injured in Bulldozer Accident

(KMZA)--Details have been released on a bulldozer accident in Nemaha County that injured a Havensville man.

Around 8:20 Monday evening, the Nemaha County Sheriff's Department along with Seneca EMS and Fire and Corning first responders responded to the scene of the accident at 6407 Atlantic in Corning.

The sheriff's department says 50-year-old Randy Elliott had been pushing trees into a pile when somehow one of the trees became lodged in the cab, pinning him.

Elliott was transported by LifeStar to an area hospital for medical treatment.

Many Signals Communications