

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=37464>

Storms Roll Through Southeast Nebraska

(KLZA) -- Tornado warnings were issued for Richardson, Pawnee and parts of Johnson County in Southeast Nebraska Tuesday night.

Approximately 300 Boy Scouts and their leaders left Camp Cornhusker south of Humboldt and spent the night at the HTRS School gymnasium in Humboldt because of the storms.

Baseball size hail was reported in some areas of Nebraska and around 70 incidents of hail were reported.

In Beatrice there was significant tree damage caused by winds of around 75 miles per hour.

Many Signals Communications