

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=37754>

KDOT Reopens Leavenworth County Road

(KAIR)--A stretch of K-5 in Leavenworth County that was closed earlier Thursday morning due to flooding has reopened.

According to a release from the Kansas Department of Transportation. Flood waters from Seven-Mile Creek have receded, and normal traffic operations on K-5 have resumed in that area.

Many Signals Communications