Tarkio Man Injured in Rollover Wreck

(KTNC)--A northwest Missouri man was injured in a rollover crash early Friday morning.

According to the Missouri State Highway Patrol, 31-year-old Jesse McCallum of Tarkio was westbound on Highway 136, seven miles east of Tarkio at 12:20 Friday morning, when his 2008 Saturn left the roadway. The vehicle overturned several times and went airborne before coming to rest on its wheels in a ravine off the south side of the road.

McCallum was taken by ambulance to the Fairfax Community Hospital with moderate injuries.
