St. Joseph Woman Sentenced For $1 Million Theft

(MSC News)--A 63-year-old St. Joseph, Missouri woman learned her fate in federal court, sentenced for stealing nearly $1 million from two companies

KQ2-TV reports that Vicky McDonnel will spend five years in federal prison and pay restitution of over $940,000 to Max pro Consultants, Inc. and MPC Billboards, Inc., where she was once a part owner.

Prosecutors say the crime began in 1997 but ended in 2009. McDonell pled guilty last year.

Many Signals Communications