St. Joseph Man Killed in Tractor-Vehicle Crash

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) - A 84-year-old St. Joseph man has died after a motorist struck his farm tractor in northwest Missouri.

The Missouri State Highway Patrol reports the wreck occurred Saturday afternoon as a tractor driven by Ora Brooke was traveling north on U.S. 71 outside St. Joseph. The patrol says a pickup truck that was traveling in the same direction struck the rear of the tractor. Brooke was ejected from the tractor and pronounced dead at a hospital.

The pickup driver did not seek medical attention.
