Atchison Electrical Fire Victims Names Released

(KAIR)--The names of the two men who were seriously injured in a Monday morning electrical fire at an Atchison foundry have been made public by investigators from the Atchison Fire Department.

43-year-old Muscotah resident John Bilderback and 46-year-old James Colclasure, of Atchison, were severely burned in the incident that took place just after 9:30 at the Bradken Foundry, located in the 400 block of South Fourth Street.

Both men were transported to the Atchison Hospital, but Colclasure was later flown to the University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City for further treatment. The cause of the fire remains under investigation.
