Tribes, Tails & Trails

The KANZA Chapter of OCTA (Oregon-California Trails Assn.) and the Alcove Spring Preservation Society will host a Symposium centering around the Plains Indians. The dates are Sept 25 through the 28.

On Thursday evening a Reception will be held for those who are registered, at the National Guard Armory in Marysville.

Friday at the Armory, will be a day of speakers and presentations of different tribes, mountain men and wagon building. There will also be a short history of the tribes and trails in Marshall County.

Saturday's events will be held at Alcove Spring and will feature a Pawnee War Dance.

Sunday's activities will start with a rail ride from Blue Rapids to Waterville. Lunch will be served at the Historic Weaver Hotel.

For registration information please contact Arleta Martin at 785-562-3615 or arleta@bluevalley.net. Deadline to register is Sept. 10, 2014
