(KNZA)--A truck driver from Mayetta escapes injury after his semi is rear-ended while traveling in Johnson County Saturday morning.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says 65-year-old Charles Meyers was sitting on the right shoulder of the road, merging into the right lane of K-10, going eastbound.

It was then that a pick-up truck, eastbound in the right lane, ran into the back of Meyers' semi.

The driver of the pick-up, 59-year-old Kirk Keberlein, of Berryton, Kansas, suffered injuries, and was transported to Overland Park Regional Hospital for treatment.

The patrol says he was buckled up but Meyers was not.
